

KIDSHAMMER – LEARN TO PLAY: AGE OF SIGMAR

BIG PICTURE

Kidshammer – Learn to Play: Age of Sigmar offers the opportunity for open gaming and coaching for kids aged 8-15, who either are experienced in the game or completely new to the game. Coaches will be on-hand to teach the game or to improve gaming skills. This is a great opportunity to learn the game or to practice for the Age of Sigmar Youngblood Tournament on Sunday.

More information about Kidshammer in general can be found at www.kidshammer.org.

WHAT YOU NEED TO PARTICIPATE

IF CHILD IS BRINGING THEIR OWN ARMY (IDEAL IF PLANNING TO PLAY IN SUNDAY TOURNAMENT)

A 1500-Point Army

- Armies and models must be selected to fit into the requirements for 1500 points using the Match Play: First Blood Battlepack of the Age of Sigmar 4th edition Core Book (page 234-235). See Appendix at end of this primer for additional guidance on rules and army composition. GW's Age of Sigmar App allows 1500 points to be used to create armies.
- Kidshammer will NOT use any materials from the General's Handbooks.
- Kidshammer encourages models to be painted, but painted models are not required to play.
- All models should be made by Games Workshop in order to avoid confusion of what unit a model represents and to respect the IP of Games Workshop, which will be at the NOVA Open. We never want to say no to kids playing games, however, so we will not disallow proxy models, but we ask that participants keep the concerns about confusion and GW IP rights in mind.
- Each model should represent what is presented in the army list (that is, "What You See Is What You Get").
- All models must be based appropriately using the base sizes in the Battle Profiles packet available on the Warhammer Community website (<https://www.warhammer-community.com/wp-content/uploads/2024/07/JfchFCbtFUHZkZ1.pdf>)
- Three printed copies of your army list are needed: one for each opponent and one for the event organizer.

Books, Dice, & Accessories

- Players must have a physical copy of their army's datasheets and army rules, because Internet connectivity cannot be guaranteed. Loaner armies will be provided with the datasheets and army rules for the army.
- Players should come with at least 12 six-sided dice. Kidshammer will attempt to provide extra dice as well.
- Players should come with a retractable measuring tape of at least 48 inches.
- Players are encouraged to bring accessories, such as wound tokens or tokens to show effects particular to their armies, that help speed up play of the game.

IF CHILD WOULD LIKE TO USE A LOANER ARMY (IDEAL IF NEW TO THE GAME)

- Kidshammer can provide a limited number of loaner armies, which include all models and materials to play a 1500 point army (or 500 point army for younger participants) at the event.
- If you wish to use a loaner army, please contact NOVA Customer Service (customerservice@novaopen.com) no later than August 18, 2024 requesting use of a loaner army. Loaner armies will be assigned on the morning of the event.
- Loaner armies can also be used for the Kidshammer Age of Sigmar Youth Friendly Tournament on Sunday.

PARENTS' GUIDE

Parents are allowed to accompany their child during the tournament, but must not provide guidance or strategy advice during tournament. Parents are also reminded that this is a friendly kids tournament and they should model their behavior accordingly. Please remember that all Kidshammer staff are volunteers and are trying their best to ensure that the kids have a good time. Please help them achieve that goal!

Please keep in mind that Kidshammer is a gaming event, so if you are aware that your child has difficulty focusing or controlling impulses, it would be great to have a parent or caregiver on hand to help direct the child. If a child is highly disruptive, they may be asked to sit out until the disruptive behavior can be controlled.

Regardless, parents or adult caregivers must be present to pick up their child at the end of the event. We cannot let a child leave the gaming area without a parent or adult caregiver accompanying the child. Parents' assistance is also requested to help kids keep to the schedule of the event and to be ready to play on time for each round.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: What is the minimum and maximum ages allowed for Kidshammer – Learn to Play: Age of Sigmar?

A: Kidshammer – Learn to Play: Age of Sigmar is open to kids as young as 8-years old and as old as 15-years old. Kids older than 15 cannot participate in the event, but contact customerservice@novaopen.com if they are interested in volunteering to help run the event. Kids younger as young as 8 are welcome participate, but we ask for an adult guardian to stay with them during the event.

Q: Do I need to pre-register for Kidshammer events, or can participants just sign up on the day?

A: We much, much prefer people to pre-register for Kidshammer events. Unlike other events, Kidshammer events are small and very much tailored to the participants. Knowing the number of participants as far in advance as possible allows the organizer to create an event that is really special. In addition, space is limited at the NOVA Open, and if it appears that Kidshammer will not sell out its allotted spaces, the decision may be made to reduce the size of the Kidshammer event in order to make room for other events that have waiting lists for additional players. That said, if you see this last minute and want to join the fun, please sign up whenever you can, even on the day of the event (if space is available).

Q: What about lunch? How's that going to work?

A: There will be multiple food options in and around the convention site. If the child is accompanied by a parent or guardian, they can pick up the child during lunch break and take the child to lunch. Children are also welcome to bring their own lunches, and we will find a place for them to sit and eat during the lunch break with adult supervision.

Q: What if GW introduces some new game mechanism prior to the NOVA Open? Will it be used for Kidshammer: Youngbloods Friendly Tournament?

A: It isn't possible to answer that without knowing the specifics of the mechanism, but we anticipate sticking to the Matched Play: First Blood battlepack rules in the Core Book and will not use mechanics not present in those rules (as modified in the Appendix). The organizer will monitor GW releases and reach out by email to people who signed up for Kidshammer to address any such issues. If you have a question, please feel free to send it to customerservice@novaopen.com and the organizer will get back to you with an answer.

APPENDIX

RULES & ARMY COMPOSITION

Armies and models must be selected to fit into the requirements for 1500 points using the Matched Play: First Blood Battlepack of the Age of Sigmar 4th edition Core Book (page 234-235). Kidshammer will NOT use any materials from the General's Handbooks. GW's Age of Sigmar App allows 1500 points to be used to create armies.

The three Battleplans that will be used during Kidshammer events are the three battleplans in the Matched Play: First Blood Battlepack in the 4th edition Core Book (page 235):

- 1) Border War
- 2) Stake A Claim; and
- 3) Shifting Priorities.

Kidshammer will have "cheat sheets" and other gaming aids to help players understand and remember the rules and will provide a Scoring Sheet to each player before each game (see next page).

Kidshammer will use the following changes to battle tactics in order to make play easier and quicker:

- Battle Tactics are limited to the six Universal Battle Tactics in the 4th edition Core Book (page 231).
- It is not necessary to pick a battle tactic at the start of your turn order to score it. Instead, all six battle tactics are eligible to be completed each turn (4 victory points each) and can be scored whenever completed (or can be tabulated from memory at the end of the game). It is not necessary to pick a unit or objective in advance in order to score a battle tactic.
- Only one battle tactic can be scored each a turn, and no battle tactic can be scored more than once.
- No battle tactics can be scored if you went second in the previous battle round and chose to go first in the current battle round.
- To implement these changes, change Tactical Gambit ability (page 231) to read as follows:
Once Per Battle Round, End of Your Turn
TACTICAL GAMBIT: Your troops have seized the opportunity that has arisen amidst the flow of battle.
You cannot use this ability if you went second in the previous battle round and chose to go first in the current battle round.
Effect: Pick 1 battle tactic that you have not yet completed. You can score that battle tactic if it was completed this turn.

SCORING SHEET

TOURNAMENT ROUND: _____

Player's Name: _____

Opponent's Name: _____

Battle Tactics Completed (check off if completed; cannot be completed more than once per game)

	Do Not Waiver: You complete this battle tactic at the end of your turn if 2 or more friendly units fought this turn and no friendly units were destroyed this turn.
	Slay The Entourage: Pick a unit in the enemy general's regiment. You complete this battle tactic if that unit is destroyed this turn.
	Attack On Two Fronts: You complete this battle tactic at the end of your turn if you control 2 or more objectives that you did not control at the start of your turn and at least 1 of those objectives was controlled by your opponent at the start of your turn.
	Take Their Land: Pick a terrain feature wholly or partially within enemy territory and wholly outside friendly territory. You complete this battle tactic if you control that terrain feature at the end of your turn.
	Seize the Center: You complete this battle tactic at the end of your turn if 2 or more friendly units are within 3" of the center of the battlefield and are not in combat.
	Take the Flanks: You complete this battle tactic at the end of your turn if you have at least 1 friendly unit within 6" of each short battlefield edge, none of those units are wholly within friendly territory, and none of those units were set up this turn.
